Dear Students, Collaborative Partners, Colleagues and Friends,

As a community striving to be student centered, Student Affairs is proud to celebrate the accomplishments of our team members and students in this 2019-2020 Annual Impact Report. Through resilience, collaboration and talent, our committed student leaders and staff members demonstrated creativity and grit in equal measure during this challenging academic year.

On the following pages, I am proud to highlight our team’s amazing dedication to a transformative student experience. We provide programs, spaces, and services that contribute to a student’s sense of connection to UC San Diego, enriching their education beyond the classroom and informing their life in deep and meaningful ways.

Student Affairs works to make sure that all UC San Diego students benefit from high-impact practices, and we are delighted to partner with committed colleagues and stakeholders that include Associated Students, the Graduate Student Association, Undergraduate Colleges, Graduate Division, Alumni Affairs, Academic Affairs, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, Enrollment Management, and UC San Diego Health.

BACKGROUND Our new five-year strategic plan for 2019-2024 guides our division’s efforts and ensures we focus on the most critical areas of success for current and future students. Using a Collective Impact framework, our plan supports the UC San Diego Strategic Plan and the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI) Strategic Plan for Inclusive Excellence to ensure we are actively advancing our core values and are accountable for a student-centered Triton experience.

The new strategic plan reflects the mindset of collective impact through a co-creation process with the Chancellor’s Cabinet, the Executive Vice Chancellor’s Cabinet, Student Affairs Unit Heads, the Council of Deans of Student Affairs, the Council of Provosts, Directors of Residential Life, Housing, Dining, & Hospitality, the Teaching + Learning Commons, Associated Students, and the Graduate Student Association. This process was informed by work with outside consultants from Keeling & Associates, as well as focus groups and listening sessions conducted by the Office of Operational and Strategic Initiatives (OASI) that involved more than 100 student, faculty, and staff constituents.

STUDENT AFFAIRS STRATEGIC PLAN (2019-2024) The five goals of the 2019-2024 Student Affairs Strategic Plan are:

GOAL 1: STUDENT EXPERIENCE

Generate a student-centered transformation to maximize our vibrant and engaging community through partnerships with the Undergraduate Colleges and Graduate Division.

GOAL 2: STUDENT SUCCESS

Inspire students to discover meaningful connections, explore their interests, and participate in co-curricular experiences while pursuing their degrees in a timely manner.

GOAL 3: WELL-BEING

Cultivate an environment of well-being that empowers our campus community to establish and sustain healthy practices.

GOAL 4: INCLUSION AND EQUITY

Advance an inclusive culture and equitable practices and outcomes.

GOAL 5: PARTNERSHIP AND COMMUNITY

Develop, engage, and sustain purposeful and meaningful partnerships that reimagine student centeredness.
As a university and as a nation, we are grappling with fundamental truths about our world marked by heinous acts of violence and inequitable policies inflicted upon and directed at Black, Brown, Indigenous, LGBTQIA+, and other marginalized groups.

ACTIONS, NOT FACTIONS

As part of our Collective Impact framework — wherein units come together in support of a shared agenda — the Division of Student Affairs was invited to make commitments to address anti-Blackness at UC San Diego. It is important to remember that this is, and will always be, an imperfect work in progress that we will advance collaboratively. We are all responsible for creating a campus that actively counters anti-Blackness, develops allies and advocates who are anti-racist, seek justice and better supports the health and well-being of Black students, colleagues, and community members. We need to identify and address all forms of implicit and explicit racism and bias on our campus. We must, and we will, do more.

Our strategic set of community commitments to address anti-Blackness and short-term actions is a starting point and far from being final. Long-term actions will require more listening and learning, which are key to creating sustainable and measurable solutions.

All of us — students, staff, faculty, and alumni — have ideas about how to move forward. We will draw on that deep reservoir of knowledge and engage our entire community to inform, advance, and achieve transformative change. To this end, we welcome critique of our own curricular and professional practices, as well the submission of further ideas, commitments, and collaborative interests to VCSA@ucsd.edu.

We will report out on our progress annually each August.

We will continue to educate ourselves and to sustain our commitments to addressing anti-Blackness beyond this galvanizing moment through continual reflection, conversation, action, and celebration.

Thank YOU to the team members who have continued to work on campus during the transition to remote learning.

A WARM WELCOME
The 2019 Welcome Week Committee — in collaboration with the Center for Student Involvement (CSI) — introduced an exciting new campus initiative: “Ask Mi’ Human Kissiks.” More than 35 volunteer staff and students were stationed on Library Walk, Ridge Walk, and Sun God Lawn or were roaming campus in bright yellow “Ask Mi’” shirts, ready to answer questions and assist new students.

Scholarships, workshops on developing C.V.s and résumés, and time partners such as Study Abroad and the Office of Financial Aid and by a student and staff co-facilitator, who also work together to plan each reflection for incoming first-year and transfer students. Each OLC is led learning communities that focus on creating a sense of community and 50-minute to connect with other first-generation college students, faculty, staff, and supporters. CASP hosts Once a Week Learning Communities (OLCs), 50-minute learning communities that focus on creating a sense of community and reflection for incoming first-year and transfer students. Each OLC is led by a student and staff co-facilitator, who also work together to plan each meeting. Topics covered by OLC include presentations from campus partners such as Study Abroad and the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships, workshops on developing CVs and résumés, and time for students to talk with one another and reflect on their own journey.

The Triton Firsts Initiative hosted a Campus Wide First-Generation Welcome Social as an opportunity for incoming first-generation college students to connect with other first-generation college students, faculty, staff, and supporters.

TAKING IT VIRTUAL
Transitioning to a remote environment posed both new challenges and opportunities to keep students connected and engaged with the university and each other. Staff members in University Centers and Global Education responded to this unprecedented need, creating the innovative Virtual Student Union and Global Hub, respectively.

The Virtual Student Union allows students to feel connected even though they are temporarily apart, serving as a collective portal for all of the amazing activities that students can participate in virtually (ex. virtual cooking demos and live dance classes), along with valuable resources that are still available. The Global Hub fosters this feeling of connection — across time zones — by serving as a one-stop-shop for virtual global engagement (e.g., opportunities to participate in Intercultural Social Hour; Lunch & Learns with Faculty and Scholars; and Virtual Study Abroad programs).

The student organizations on campus
- 600 student organizations on campus
- 17 multicultural sororities and fraternities
- 10,000 unique pageviews for virtual global engagement (e.g., opportunities to participate in Intercultural Social Hour; Lunch & Learns with Faculty and Scholars; and Virtual Study Abroad programs).
AN UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH COMMUNITY

Academic Enrichment Programs (AEP) empowers undergraduates seeking hands-on learning opportunities in the UC San Diego research community to develop the skills needed to be successful in a post-baccalaureate career.

In collaboration with the AEP Summer Research Program, the Undergraduate Research Scholarships (URS) NEW Scholars Program is a summer research opportunity for undocumented undergraduate students who are eligible for AB540/California Dream Act financial aid. Students in this program participate in 10-12 weeks of full-time faculty-mentored research; are offered training in how to write and present a scholarly paper; and participate in Summer Research Program (SRP) activities. NEW Scholars have the opportunity to present their research at the Summer Research Conference in mid-August of each year.

Highlights from AEP are included in the infographic below.

The Office of Student Conduct practices Restorative Justice (RJ), an approach that identifies harms and works to address and to repair them, with a focus on making the community and harmed parties whole again. Student Conduct, along with the campus-wide Restorative Justice committee, conducted more than 70 sessions on RJ throughout the campus, including presentations on the foundations of RJ and facilitation of community circles focused on COVID-19 and racial injustices/xenophobia. These community circles serve to bring together community members to address harmful behavior, in a manner consistent with RJ practices.

Collaborations around Restorative Justice include the Undergraduate Colleges, UC San Diego Health, Athletics, International Center, and the Office for Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion. A collaboration with Admissions is in the works to facilitate a community circle to build community amongst the student employees and staff.

The Triton Community Leadership Institute (TCLI) is a year-long program open to new first-year undergraduate students, primarily those who are first-generation. This four-day residential experience launches the summer before matriculation and provides students with the skills to prepare them for their career journey.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT EXPERIENCE SYMPOSIUM
The Office of the Vice Chancellor — Student Affairs, Global Education and the International Students & Programs Office held a one-day workshop, peer mentoring, and resource seminars are offered to keep students connected as a cohort and to extend learning.

BRIDGING THE TECHNOLOGY GAP
As UC San Diego shifted to remote learning, the Vice Chancellor — Student Affairs Office — in partnership with Financial Aid and Information Technology Services (ITS) — was able to provide more than 200 devices, such as laptops and hotspots, to students with financial need to support their remote student experience.

Though some of the Chancellor’s Associates Scholars Program (CASP) team is abroad, with student staff in China, Mexico, and Brazil, they have continued to work together to support their students. Learn with CASP, a tutorial video series on the CASP YouTube channel, was created to increase student familiarity with tools such as: Handshake, Ecotime, and Zoom. The series also included a number of informational panels and videos on graduate school, as well as the Intertribal Resource Center.

HISPANIC SERVING INSTITUTION (HSI)
UC San Diego has made great strides toward becoming a Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI). With nearly 22% full-time Latinx undergraduate student enrollment as of Fall Quarter 2020, the university is considered an Emerging HSI. With 25% full-time Latinx undergraduate enrollment, the university would become eligible for HSI designation. HSI status will help us create a more welcoming and inclusive campus culture, making our institution more attractive to high-achieving Latinx students.

Programs like CASP increase access for local students to higher education—55% of these scholars identify as Latinx/Chicanx. In 2019–2020, SRS units served over 2,000 unique Latinx students through the various programs.

SUPPORT FOR UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS
This year, Undocumented Student Services (USS) will launch the Domestic Exchange Program, a unique opportunity for undocumented/DACAmented students to gain exposure to academic life at different institutions around the country and a positive impact on their personal development and career outlook. The program is set to launch post-COVID with our pilot partner institution, the University of Rochester in New York.

EXPANDED SUMMER BRIDGE PROGRAM
For the first time, OASIS and the Teaching + Learning Commons are jointly offering a remote Summer Bridge student success program during summer 2020. The merger of two existing programs, Summer Bridge is designed to extend access to almost 500 incoming students.

PROVIDING INCLUSIVE SUPPORT
In an effort to support international students who are currently in their home countries, graduate students, and students with dependents, Case Management Services ensures that a case manager is available after hours to connect with students during a time that may be more convenient for them. In addition, the team will partner with the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) to offer Zoom and chats for incoming first-year and transfer students registering with OSD to help them navigate their transition to UC San Diego.

In order to increase accessibility in academic programs abroad and advising services, the Study Abroad team developed a Zoom protocol for working with students who identify as deaf or hard of hearing. The team is working with OSD to provide interpreters (as needed) and to provide advisors with a set of guidelines to follow, ensuring that proper accommodations are available.

SORORITY & FRATERNITY LIFE
As part of the Center for Student Involvement, Sorority and Fraternity Life has continued to work on building an inclusive community within their programs. This year, the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Peer Advisory Council, Vice Chancellor of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Office, Black Resource Center, and the Office of Student Conduct. The primary purpose of NPHC organizations is Black community awareness and action through educational, economic, service, and cultural activities.

In addition, the Office of the Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor — Student Affairs have allocated funds to support undocumented students with DACA renewals and on-campus internship opportunities:

- $58,500 in aid for Dream (Inclusive) Fellowships
- $23,255 in aid for DACA renewals

EXPANDED SUMMER BRIDGE PROGRAM
For the first time, OASIS and the Teaching + Learning Commons are jointly offering a remote Summer Bridge student success program during summer 2020. The merger of two existing programs, Summer Bridge is designed to extend access to almost 500 incoming students.

The unification of these programs also solidifies the academic and socio-emotional support received by admitted students (predominantly first-generation and/or underrepresented) as they prepare to enter their first year at UC San Diego.
Each year, SPACES hosts the SPICEE Overnight Program for prospective high school students, which offers participants experiences rooted in social justice, student empowerment, and multiculturalism. The SPICEE Overnight Program partners with the Black Resource Center, Black Student Union (BSU), Jacobs School of Engineering, LGBT Resource Center, and Raza Resource Centro to offer activities and workshops that are culturally relevant and academically based.

AMERICAN COUNCIL OF EDUCATION INTERNATIONALIZATION LAB
In September 2019, UC San Diego began work towards developing a comprehensive internationalization strategy as part of the American Council on Education (ACE) Internationalization Lab. The goal of the ACE lab is to create a series of data-driven recommendations to support strategic internationalization across six distinct pillars: Collaborative Research, Administrative Structure and Staffing, Curriculum, Co-Curriculum, and Learning Outcomes; Faculty Policies and Practices; Student Engagement; and Institutional Collaborations and Partnerships. The goal is to have a final comprehensive Internationalization Report complete by the end of Fall Quarter 2020 and submitted to the Academic Senate for review and comment by the winter break.
